Hey Pethunters!

Today I present the third issue of PETHUNTER. A warm welcome to our French speaking readers. Our team members Ulrica#7476 and Syl#5029 will take care of perfect translations of our text and will be happy to help you in the French reader service.

We have made great progress with our project "Certified PETHUNTER Club". In the meantime we could certify eight clubs, some of them have already set up a PETHUNTER Lounge. You can recognize them by our PETHUNTER logo near the entrance.

Watch out for it! We recommend to visit them and you will always find team members, actors and models of us there. You will also find a list of these clubs in this issue and we will continue to expand it.

Of course, we also have interesting interviews again and report in a two-part article about the life and work of rockstars in 3DX. In the first part the founders of the bands BISH and Rockwitch will give us interesting insights into their start and the foundation of their bands.

A very special surprise awaits the fans of Philomena at the end of episode 3, as always with lots of action and eroticism.

Hunt The Huntress!

I have good news for all of you who always wanted to be a Super Model!

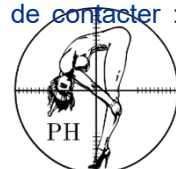

For our next issues we are looking for the "Huntress of the Month" with a contest. If you want to be our cover model and the Huntress, please apply in the specially created area of our PETHUNTER Discord Channel: hunt-the-huntress

There you will find all the information on how to apply. We will announce the winners at the big "Hunt the Huntress" event on April 27th.

Hugs and kisses from

Part 2: The hunter in private

PH: Hello again Oli, thank you for inviting us to your home today!

Oli: Hello Sue, it's my pleasure. Welcome

PH: That's a wonderful home. I'm really impressed! I expected something special, but this house is awesome! Thank you for showing me all the rooms, even the "special ones".

Oli: (Smiles) thank you very much Sue. You must have it comfy at home, right? I was lucky to have really good friends helping me out and making it possible to live in a place like this.

PH: Well, today I would like to talk a little bit more about you and being home. (smiles) You told me that this house was a gift? How did this happen? Don't think anybody would gift me such a dream of a home; unfortunately. (sighs deeply)

Oli: (Laughs) well my good friend Dione built this place and as she realized how much I like it she gifted it to me. She has a heart of gold. My beautiful & talented wife Lucy did some changes for us.

PH: Aha, again the women in your life. (smiles sassy) You are such a lucky man.

So, do you have enough time to be in your home? As you told me before you are always busy. Parties, clubs, video shootings and so on, are you here often?

Oli: Well at least I try to be. It is important to have a place where you can relax and clear your mind. Best is of course when I can share the time at home with my wife. And sometimes I open my place up for friends.

PH: Oh yes of course, it's such a huge house. Surely you will have wild parties with friends in here, am I right?

Oli: (Laughs) Who knows? Well mostly it is very relaxed. The door is open for everyone and we just hang out and relax. Let me see if I can find a picture for you.

Part 2: The hunter in private

PH: Oh yes, I would love to see a picture from one of your wild home parties. I can imagine the kind of parties that will take place here, (grins)

Oli: Won't share any "wild party pics". (laughs)

PH: Ah, c'mon, this looks not very wild! But I count two men and five girls and think they just arrived. What happened a bit later?

Oli: (Laughs) I don't organize private orgies if this is what you refer to. We sometimes meet before or after events here. It is just some quality time with friends.

PH: Hm, these words from a womanizer like you? Hard to believe ! (laughs)

Ok, I believe you. The girls still wear their clothes, so let's be silent about what happened later that night. Apart from having parties with friends here, you told me that it is a place mostly for you and your wife Lucy, right?

Oli: Yes, that's true.

PH: And you showed me a special place at the beach. Compared with the rooms in your house it is built quite simple. What is so special about that place?

Oli: It is our den. Our very private place. When you ask me what is so special about it, it is ours. You connect moments and situations with it. If we want to cuddle and lay down, we go there. It is our bubble.

PH: Aw, that sounds really romantic. Only for you and your beloved woman. I love the idea! It seems to me that Oli is not only that heartbreaking womanizer as we know him, but there is also a romantic side in your heart. Is that so?

Oli: Of course there is. And I am not that wild anymore. Just because I know a lot of beautiful women doesn't mean I have something with them. I love to flirt, no doubt about it but who doesn't?

PH: Ah, c'mon Oli. You do much more but only flirting. (smiles) But I'm happy to hear that it is possible to conquer even the heart of a womanizer like you. Your wife must be a happy girl.

Part 2: The hunter in private

Oli: Well, I hope she is. But you have to ask her of course. I try to make her happy every single day.

PH: That's a great statement Oli! I wish all men would try to make their women happy every day. Maybe that is your secret way to get the hearts from us women. Hey, did you hear that boys? Try to make your girls happy, everyday! It will work, trust me!

I'm curious to learn a little bit more about the person behind that damn good looking and handsome avatar of OliverCream. Could you tell us a bit about you, without being too personal of course?

Oli: Oh, I think i am a quite simple guy and want what most people want. Just having a good time and fun. I love to talk about music, movies and traveling. Friendship is important to me (here and irl). I am loyal and always there for my friends. At least I try to be. I love the connections you build up here over the years and met some amazing people I don't want to miss anymore.

PH: In which country /city do you live Oli, if I may ask?

Oli: Of course, that is no secret. I am from Germany. I live way up in the north, directly at the border to Denmark.

PH: You live in Germany. How did it happen that your English is so good? Did you learn it in 3DX?

Oli: Well I "blame" music, movies and my job for it. And I spent almost 1 year in North America during a work project.

PH: Hey! So, you have been in my home country? Have you even been in Texas?

Oli: Oh, I have been to Texas a couple of times. The headquarters of my company was in Dallas so I spent quite some time there. Also went to Houston & Austin. I love Tex-Mex kitchen. (smiles)

PH: Good boy! You've even been in Austin my hometown. Did you like Texas and especial Austin?

Oli: Oh yes I did. 6th street, Bat Bridge and so many other places. "Keep Austin weird". In Texas I made some great friends and i enjoyed my time there to the fullest. And of course, I am a big fan of "Twin Peaks"

PH: Cool! Yes indeed, I agree: "Keep Austin weird", we try our best to do so. (laughs) You said your job brought you from Germany to USA. This must be a particularly important and interesting job. But travelling isn't easy during times of Corona. Can you give us an idea what kind of job it is?

Oli: I work as Project Manager and Service Delivery Manager.

PH: Sounds like a job with a lot of responsibility and interesting and brings you around the world?

PETHUNTER

OliverCream

Part 2: The hunter in private

Oli: It did before. Now during Corona I am grounded sadly. I miss to travel badly.

PH: But your work must be heavily affected by the international Corona restrictions right now. How do you handle this? Working only in remote office?

Oli: I am used to work from home so that is not a big change, but my onsite visits are missing now. That makes everything complicated of course.

PH: I fully understand that. And we all have no idea how long this will go on. Ok finally we got some vaccine. That gives us hope for a better next year, don't you think so?

Oli: We all need hope. Without it we are lost. So yes, let's hope for the best. We are living in crazy times now.

PH: Crazy times, good point Oli! You told me before that you just had a kind of party marathon. Especially your 4 years 3dx anniversary party was a big success --more than 150 guests. Did you expect such a big success and so many friends joining you?

Oli: OMG, it was crazy.No, I never expected it getting this big...I was totally overwhelmed. And it makes me very thankful. Let me show you something: PIC OF PARTY HERE

2 days later and I am still hyped. THANK YOU so much for making my anniversary this special. I loved to see so many familiar & happy faces. I couldn't ask for better friends and feel honored. Everything was amazing: the music, the dancer & the guests. Maybe this shows you how surprised I was. It was even better than in my wildest dreams.

PH: Fully understandable Oliver, that is absolutely stunning. What made it so successful? Your personality, your big friend list or something else?

Oli: Well, I hope that some only came to celebrate with me (laughs). But I have to say that the DJs (my dear friends) did an amazing job. They created an atmosphere that everyone just wanted to dance, party, and stay. And local chat was on fire too. I think it was a combination of a lot of things. What makes me most happy is the positive feedback I get now. Everyone seemed to enjoy it and that is way more important than numbers.

PH: For sure, and you can get a positive feedback from me as well. (smiles). I also joined the party, and I can confirm that it was amazing. The room, the music, the people, the mood in the local chat all incredibly well. But I think the main reason for most of the guests to come was you anyway. (smiles) So, there must be something special about you, Oliver. We couldn't find out what it is exactly but let's just say: OliverCream is a very special and sympathetic person and we are all happy that you with us in 3DXChat!

Part 2: The hunter in private

Oli: Aw, now you make me blush Sue. Thank you very much. People like you are the reason why 3dx is such a special place. I am very happy and thankful that we met and that we are friends.

PH: Hey, now you make me blush. (really blushed)

Oli: So, we better hug!

PH: We will! As we come to the end of our interview now, too bad, I enjoyed it really very much. Let me thank you for your patience, your openness and all the interesting information about one of the most interesting persons in 3DXChat.

Oli: It was my pleasure Sue. I enjoyed the interview a lot and you did an amazing job. It never felt like work, you created a wonderful atmosphere and it felt more like a chat with a friend (what it was.. but you know what I mean).

PH: Thank you! Last word is for you Oli, is there anything you would like to tell our readers about yourself or 3DX in general?

Oli: Well, there is one thing people should never forget: There is a real person behind every avatar. Don't play with feelings and don't take everything too serious. We are all here to have a good time and fun, at least we should.

PH: I fully agree! Thanks a lot for having us and have a great evening with your beautiful wife who just joined us.

Hotel 7 Sins

Part 1

You check into the hotel after a long day of out of town meetings where you decide to draw yourself a nice hot bath to soak away all the tension of the day. As the tub is filling you slowly disrobe, taking off your skirt and blouse and you then slowly sink into the hot soapy bath. Bubbles reach up to your chin as you set your head back to relax you hear your room door open.

You call out "occupied!"

You hear soft footsteps slowly approaching the door to the bathroom. It is pushed open and you see one of the maids standing there staring at you. She has long blond hair and blue eyes that look into yours. She bites her lower lip, nervous that she has interrupted you.

"Do you need anything Miss? This is a full service hotel you know."

"No no, you say I am good I will call if I need anything."

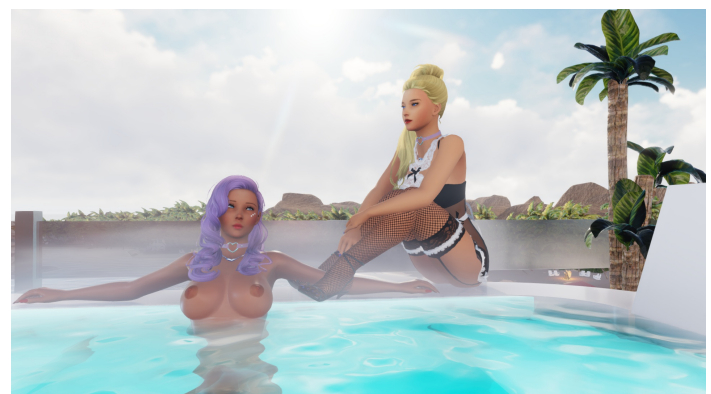

She walks forward towards you, her eyes never leaving you. You get nervous as she approaches you.

"Let me help Miss!", as she kneels down next to the tub and reaches in taking the soap from your hands, but you start to stammer.

"Ssh", she says, "full service"

She lathers up her hands and starts to rub your shoulders. You immediately feel the tension start to escape your body, perhaps this is not too bad. Her hands work into your trapezius and neck, you let out a soft moan. Her hands slowly move down into the water, down your back she slides them.

Hotel 7 Sins

Part 1

“Oh no”, she squeaks, “my uniform will get wet!”

She removes her hands and stands. She undoes her uniform, letting it fall to the ground. She is standing in front of you in her black bra, panties and garters holding up her shapely legs.

“I know what would be better yet.” she says.

She reaches, back unfastens her bra which then falls away from her wonderful round perk breasts. Her pink nipples standing out and you watch as she bends over and pushes down her panties, garter and stockings

“This way I can make sure I reach every stop.”

She steps into the tub behind you and slides down into the water. You are too shocked to say anything at this point but as you feel her body press against your back, you figure you might as well enjoy what comes next. Her hands return to your back, she rubs up and down from your shoulders to your hips.

Her fingers playing over your flesh and a soft moan escapes your lips. She slowly pulls you back. You feel her nipples press into your back. Her hands move around to your front, she starts to rub her fingers across your abdomen, sending shivers through you despite the warm water you are sitting in.

Her hands slowly slide up, she cups under your breasts. They are light under the water. She begins to softly knead them. You let out a soft gasp, feeling her fingers squeeze your flesh, feeling a warmth stir inside of you. Your nipples begin to respond, they begin to harden as her fingers work your flesh slowly moving toward them until she has them between her thumb and middle finger. She pinches down on them softly, then releases, pinches, releases, pinch, and release. Over and over she plays with them, hearing your gasps of pleasure only encouraging her to continue.

With each release of the nipple it fills back with blood, hardens with excite. You squirm to her touch.

PETHUNTER

Hotel 7 Sins

Part 1

Your bottom wiggling back into her, her thighs tight against you, she begins to rub her index finger on the tip of your excited nipples sending waves of pleasure coursing through your chest. Your breath becomes ragged and you can barely focus with the constant stimulation of your breasts. You throw your head back against her shoulder, you feel her lips go to your neck when she starts to kiss and lightly suck on you while she begins to pull on your nipples now, pulling them away from you, sending another jolt after jolt through you. You begin to squirm more against her, you feel her skin on your back wiggling between her legs.

Her right hand releases your breast, her palm slides down your belly, down over your pelvic bone her fingers rub softly over the lips of your treasure and you let out a gasp “pleaaase!” You cannot see her face but you sense a smile crosses her lips as she hears your words. Her left hand continues its ministrations on your nipple, her hand rubs you under the soapy water and you involuntarily spread your legs wanting, needing to feel her inside of you but her fingers only continue to trace over your outer lips. Her nails lightly scratching on your flesh, three fingers rub up and down your opening, the two on the outside massaging your lips, the middle tracing back and forth; if only she would just enter you.

Hotel 7 Sins

Part 1

Then it happens the middle finger is bent, the tip slides into your treasure. Her finger runs between your lips and you gasp “yesss”.trying to push your hips up to meet her. You feel her kissing your neck harder, sucking on you. Her face nuzzled into your neck, her fingers moving faster. She inches in deeper, her second knuckle is inside of you and she runs it back and forth in your warmth. You are squirming in her arms and legs. She has you secure in her embrace and you feel a warm flutter building inside of you.

Her fingers spread your hood to your pearl, she takes her finger and begins to slide up and down over her, pressing her, feeling her swell you are gasping for breath as her digits rub you. Your hands grip each of her thighs and you hold on to her as she plays with your love button. Your moans are louder, filling the room. She starts to pinch your nipple harder, her kisses turn to bites into our neck, your shoulder. Between her bites you hear her encouraging you:

“Let it go baby! Give it to me! Let me bring you to your orgasm! I want to feel you shake in my arms!”

Your breathing becomes ragged, your heart beating out of your chest, jolt after jolt of electricity fires between your legs as she rubs her fingers over your love button. You feel it building inside of you, your hands squeeze her legs and you begin to stiffen as the crescendo comes. Your pearl hard, sensitive and every touch moves through your body. Your breasts heave, your eyes roll back and with a scream you let go.

Your body convulses, wave after wave course through your body. Your legs shake, your hands like vises on thighs as you buck in her grasp. She holds you tight, her teeth on your shoulder, holding you, letting you finish and slowly sink back down into her embrace. She gives you a soft kiss on the neck and gets up out of the tub. You sit back in a blissful daze, .watching her slowly dress her back. She looks back over her shoulder, blows you a kiss.

“Is there anything else you will need ma'am?”

“No no, thank you”, barely can you get the words out.

She turns and leaves. You hear your door close behind her as she exits. Moments later you extract yourself from the tub and crawl into the bed, having one of your best sleeps ever...

THE END?

BISH and ROCKWITCH

Live your dream! Be a rock star!

BikiniKim

Leader of BISH

AndreaAinaCara,
Leaderin of ROCKWITCH

PH: Welcome Drea and BikiniKim! Thanks for joining us tonight.

We have invited the both of you this evening for two reasons, the first: you had a fantastic performance with your bands ROCKWITCH and BISH at our PETHUNTER Release Party in February, and the second is: we want to learn more about how you do that and how you came up with the idea to form your own bands in 3DX. But before we discuss it, please tell us first a little bit about yourselves. Where do you live IRL? When did you start in 3dx and how did you get the idea to form a band? BikiniKim will you start?

Kim: Thank you for inviting us, Susanne. You can call me Kim.

PH: Hi Kim, I'm Sue. (smiles)

Kim: I live in the US Pacific Northwest. I found and joined 3DXChat in October 2018 on a recommendation from a friend in an online chat room. My wife here in 3DX, Emde, and I had an idea to form a band and tour around 3DX in the spring of last year. Emde, also from the US, also plays bass guitar IRL. And I am a huge rock and progressive metal fan. It seemed a great fit for us to try the band thing in 3DX. The key elements of the band were: (i) we tour all around 3DX; (ii) play/DJ our own musi; (iii) be active on local chat; and (iv) work hard and party hard with the band members.

PETHUNTER

BISH and ROCKWITCH

Live your dream! Be a rock star!

PH: Ok, thanks Kim! Drea, what about you? How did you come to 3DX? Please tell us a bit about yourself. Where do you live IRL, when did you start in 3dx and how did you get the idea to form a band?

Drea: I used to play in a rock band when I was young, I love music and 3dx gives you the opportunity to make your own streams and also to play as a band. RockWitch was founded on October 2019. Of the founding members, I am the only one left. But a short time after it was founded, Josi and Ellie joined the band. And shortly after that, Sandy. At the end of last year, Tammi and Safira joined us and finally, Kira, on Bass. How I came to 3dx? Before I was in another chat game. Some people told me about 3dx and finally I'm here. (smiles)

PH: Ok, that's interesting! So, the both of you joined 3DX not because of it being a sex game or kinda social media community but because of the possibilities to perform as a band?

Drea: No, not exactly.

Kim: Oh no, I joined 3DX because it was a sex game. And then I discovered all this wonderful music. It was like being back in college and discovering so much new music. Then the music bug took hold and I learned to DJ over the 3 days 3DX was down on the spring of 2020.

PH: Ok, but you didn't say that, both of you! (grins)

Drea: I believe that sex plays a big role for everyone who has signed up here. I didn't know anything about the possibilities of starting a band here, but I love sex and that was the first reason for me to join 3DX.

PETHUNTER

BISH and ROCKWITCH

Live your dream! Be a rock star!

Kim: I love what a great social platform 3DX is. You can do so many things: dance, DJ, bartend, greet, escort, build, run a small club or a big org, make adult films, the niches seem to be endless, and form a band!

PH: I understand! So, you are not only rock stars but also girls who want to have fun ? (smiles)

Drea: Exactly!

Kim: Oh yes of course! That is why Bish incorporates some striptease and nudity on our shows. The founding principles of Bish are: we are respectful, inclusive, sexy, fun, and rocking!

PH: Oh, hey Kim! We will talk about that later, regarding our next Release Party (grins)

Kim: Okay Sue (smiles)

Drea: Men often ask what I'm looking for here. My answer is always: I heard that you can exchange good recipes here. (laughs)

Kim: Drea, is your recipe book the Kama Sutra? (grins)

PH: Girls, I don't know much about running a band here in 3DX, so please explain to me and our readers a bit how you are running the business. And what is the main difference between a good DJ and your bands? Both are streaming. What makes the difference?

Drea: Mh, it's more work than you think. You have to organize concerts, you have to get people together for certain dates, you build locations, put together streams, take care of choreography, etc.

Kim: There are similarities for sure. DJing the music is a big part of it as well as engaging the room in local. But in a band, you have a stage performance too. In Bish that includes: singing the lyrics, sync dancing, coordinating on the microphones, some striptease, our wardrobe, and our Bish-branded instruments for an overall look. A thing I learned from RockWitch, my favorite 3DX band, is mixing in concert audience sounds in our show.

PH: Hey, that sounds like a lot of work! How much time do you spend in 3dx in total and how much is for the work with your bands?

Kim: Doing a two hour show is a lot of fun, but also exhausting for me as DJ. I am constantly focusing on lyrics, dance sync, mic coordination, mixing and fading, and chat in local, band group chat, and DJ group for the start and end transitions.

PETHUNTER

BISH and ROCKWITCH

Live your dream! Be a rock star!

Drea: That is different. For the Inferno Festival e.g. I spent about 2.5 months to get 4 bands together to build the location. Make sure that no band plays the same songs and as I said, bring everything together on your date.

PH: Two and half months Drea? Wow, that's hard!

Drea: About 2 hours a day on average. If the thing is to be good you have to do it professionally, Sue. (smiles)

PH: Yes of course Drea, I fully agree with that!

Drea: Like your magazine, Sue.

PH: Thank you Drea! (Sue smiles and blushes)

Kim: We have also added a Bish tour bus now and a lot "activity" happens on that bus during and after the shows, as we had hoped. For each gig we put the venue name on the sign at the front of the bus, and the band members open their rooms with the bus which directs the friends to the gig.

PH: A tour bus Kim? (laughs), How does this work in 3DX?

Kim: We have the venue owners add the bus to their rooms if they have space to do so, in a parking lot or parked on the street nearby.

PH: That's a real great idea Kim. Surely looks amazing, to have your tour bus in the room.

Kim: And I have a basic room with the bus on the side of a remote highway with the venue name on the bus marquee. I open it to friends with a room name something like Bish @ PetHunter Release Party. Well I hope we do that one soon.

PH: Hey, that is very professional! Surely you do have groupies too? (smiles)

Kim: Yes, we have a Discord server for our fans our groupies! There they can find out where we are playing in 3DX, chat with the band and other fans, get a band t-shirt in our merchandise store. We even have an official Bish butt plug you can download into 3DX. Too bad we can't wear them, (grins) and we also have a section for venue owners for planning gigs.

PH: An extra DC server only for your groupies, aha, that's a good idea, tell us more please! (grins)

Kim: We have channels for concert schedule, merchandise, creating set lists, wardrobe planning, a history of the band, a place for fans to post their events, and the main fan-club channel for everyone to mingle. And, of course, the NSFW channel. (grins)

PETHUNTER

BISH and ROCKWITCH

Live your dream! Be a rock star!

Drea: To remove sperm traces from the Bish Tour Bus after a gig, you have to clean it very thoroughly! (grins)

PH: OMG! (laughs)

Kim: Yes, the bus needs to be cleaned and detailed after every show!

PH: So, I suppose your groupies are mostly males?

Kim: No, we have a pretty even mix of fans. And it is great seeing them wear Bish t-shirts and colors at the shows!

PH: Yes, and since our last party with your performance I'm sure there are some more (smiles)

Kim: I really love meeting and supporting the other bands in 3DX. Drea was an early supporter of Bish and I really love RockWitch too!

PH: I didn't know all of that and I think, also a lot of our readers didn't know how much work, management and organization needs to be behind your stage performances.

Kim: And then there is the whole management of booking gigs and seeing who is available to be on stage that night. We perform 4-6 times a month and we are often booked out 6 weeks in advance.

PH: We will try to make it clear, how much is necessary to have a band performing on a stage in 3DX with a release of our article. Ok, that sounds good for me too. So, both of you often need weeks or months to prepare for a greater event where you perform 2 or 3 hours in the end?

Drea: In average, yes. Only for a big one like the festival. For a normal gig it's less. Bish and RockWitch became good friends after the festival. We don't see ourselves as a competitor, but rather complementary.

Kim: The festivals with multiple bands are a lot of work. Drea has done a great job with that. She even had backstage passes made for all the bands at the Inferno Festival, similar to the PetHunter release parties.

Drea: We had concerts where access to the stage was open. We had to postpone appearances because people had blocked the instrument and were AFK.

PH: Wow, incredible, never thought that it needs that much work to get ready for the performance. That is similar to reality even, but very interesting to learn that from you.

Kim: I know, I want to hire a band manager and promoter!

PH: Yes, that would have been my next question. How do you get your gigs?

Kim: Bish's first gig was a short set at a Bare Bunnies Fun Day. Since I organized that event, it was easy to add the band as part of it. Our first "real" gig was at Dark Breeze. The owners wanted to have different bands play there. When I saw the bar the first time and talked to the owners it was obviously perfect match for us. Then we played at a friend's room, Viking Stadium Rocks. From there things just took off and people started requesting us. It blew my mind how fast it all happened. I get choked just thinking about it.

PETHUNTER

BISH and ROCKWITCH

Live your dream! Be a rock star!

Drea: We have our own concert hall. And Josi has a club where we play every first Sunday of the month. Otherwise we also play in other clubs.

PH: Do you have a manager or promoter? How do you get your gigs if not in your own concert halls?

Drea: We have SvenMuc. He is a kind of manager and soundmen. He screams at us on Gigs.

Kim: For Bish, I manage all that. Venue owners talk with me, or band members make contacts on their own and tell them to see the "Boss Bish," the band's affectionate term for me it seems.

PH: SvenMuc? Yes, I know him. And yes, he can scream pretty loud. (grins), Boss Bish, Kim? That sounds cute.

Drea: And we all take care of gigs. With us mainly Josi and me.

PH: I hope you two use our PetHunter event channel to promote your events too? Do you?

Drea: yes

Kim: I will now. I was not aware of that. The good thing about being a touring band is that the venues do their own advertising and include our name and logo on their flyers. So that really helps. I then post those flyers where I can.

PH: Ok, but basically you promote by yourself and within your network of friends, right?

Kim: Yes, most venues publish on the big calendars like Bunny Bot as well, and all the band members post on their profiles too.

Drea: If there is a dress editor with the update, we can make our band t-shirts, Kim!

Kim: That would be fantastic!

PH: A dress editor would be really awesome, oh yes. (smiles)

Kim: For Bish, we use the woman silhouette print (print 13) on a purple top or bottom.

Drea: We advertise in various 3dx forums, such as Save haven, or Modz, or other forums.

Kim: Yes those big Discord forums now have band sections, and the band list is growing! (smiles) With Bish, I want to show what a band can be in 3DX. Happy to help other bands get started, like Valkyries, and also learn from what others are doing.

Alert

an escort customer

PH: Welcome Alert, thank you for having time with me for PETHUNTER.

Alert: Thank you for inviting me to the interview. (smiles)

PH: Before I ask the question of question, would you please tell us something about you? Since when are you in 3DX what are you looking for in that world?

Alert: I joined 3DX in summer 2020, a good friend had recommended the game to me. In fact, 3DX is my first MMORPG, before that I was using various chat platforms. So, my first "virtual sex" experiences happened in the descriptive texting domain. To me, 3DX was appealing from the first minute because of the rich and realistic graphic addition to descriptive chat.

PH: (Smiles) That means you are around for the reason we all started with, for sex, am I right?

Alert: Of course, sex plays a big role for me, too. (smiles) But 3DX has more dimensions to me: It's a social network where I can get to know interesting people from all over the world, where I can make friends, and where I can engage in communities that fill the game with content and opportunities for other players.

PH: (Nods) Is this kind of social network you are talking about more for you than you found on other text only based platforms?

Alert: Yes, definitely. In 3DX, for example, I can organize parties with awesome DJs, much like a truly entertaining virtual substitute for real clubs and concerts, which sadly are restricted in the real world due to the Corona pandemic.

PH: Yes, many say, to them 3DX is also a substitution for the missing real life socials. Are you into event organization?

Alert: Yes, I currently manage events for White Breeze and I love it.

PH: Oh I see; for sure White Breeze is very well known in the entire 3DX world. I know White Breeze dancing events but the first idea of it is an Escort service. Why did you join White Breeze, because of the eroticism which most likely can be found there?

Alert: Well, it was an erotic path that took me to WB. (smiles) In fact, my lover Sashia introduced me to WB. She is a builder, erotic content producer, and escort there. (Editorial note: WB is short for White Breeze.)

PETHUNTER

Alert

an escort customer

PH: Can I say your path through 3DX is not only eroticism based but eroticism is the main stream your path unwinds along?

Alert: To me, eroticism is closely connected to the social events and imaginative worlds that live in 3DX. All that can be a stage and a catalyst for sexual encounters of various kinds.

PH: Thank you for being open an honest, Alert. It's not often I find people staying to what they want and are. That now leads me to the question why we are here for. At times you pay for an escort service, right?

Alert: Yes, from time to time I have paid for sexual services in 3DX. The vast majority of my sexual encounters does not involve payment though.

PH: I think most people do not pay for erotic encounters all the time. Can you tell me some more details, what makes you pay for the escort service?

Alert: There are various reasons, depending on my mood and on the situation. Sometimes I had a crush on a particular girl who was an escort and did not want to give herself to me for free, which is perfectly fine for me. At other times, I was just looking for a quick and easy way to have sex, without wanting to invest into the effort of flirting, hooking up, dating with someone, and so forth. And a third reason comes to mind; paid sex has a specific quality that makes it attractive for its own sake.

PH: (Smiles seductively) So, you say, I would become more attractive to you if I say you can touch my body and get touched when it has a price?

Alert: (Laughs) It depends (smiles), I will try to explain in more detail.

PH: Oh yes, I am curious for every erotic detail your brain is thinking of. (winks)

Alert: Hey don't distract me! (laughs)

PH: (Nods with doing innocent eyes) I promise I will behave, I am a professional interviewer.

Alert: To me, the payment establishes a subtle form of dominance and submission, which is appealing to my dominance kink. I know that it also can be the other way round, in findom, but I leave that more exotic fetish out of my consideration. The usual whore or escort gets paid and then she is willing to serve her client, to fulfill his sexual desires, to cater to his needs for a defined time.

PETHUNTER

Alert

So she typically finds herself in a submissive role while the client is in a dominant position, because he can claim her services as he likes.

PH: Hm, isn't that the same like in everyday life, like when I enter a store and want some milk? I will get milk because I pay for it. They will not give me lemonade, because I would not pay for it. Do I dominate the salesperson or isn't it just a deal "money for milk/milk for money" in which both sides give something, both get something?

Alert: The "something" is quite different, though. (winks) The salesperson gives you a thing, a product, the bottle of milk in return for your payment. The escort gives you her body and her most intimate body functions, in some sense she makes herself an article of commerce, she objectifies herself to an extent, which is kinky in a specific way, too.

PH: I have to admit my feelings regarding escort service are completely the opposite of yours. I always think of it as I would have an actress but nothing real, no real emotions, though I clearly see your point of lust in domination. (Tries to hide the crop sticking in her right boot.) But please let me try to re-phrase it in my words: You get erotic feelings, sexual feelings out of the fact somebody is willing to give you her body to satisfy your desires and that you can easily get it when paying for it?

Alert: Well, there's a fundamental difference between escort services in 3DX and in the real world (winks) In contrast to real escorts, the overwhelming majority of 3DX escorts don't get paid in a currency that can be useful in the real world. Real escorts sell sex to make a living, 3DX escorts "sell" sex for their satisfaction.

PH: (Nods) I have to agree because what you say is exactly what one the most famous escorts in 3DX explained me too, when I asked her why she gives herself for gifts.

Alert: So, as a client in 3DX, I can be sure that an escort derives sexual pleasure from her selling herself to me - because if that wasn't the case, she wouldn't be an escort. And that makes it even more arousing to me: Knowing that I'm not only satisfying my kink, but also hers.

PH: We digress a little bit from your person. (winks) But tell me why can't the escort and you just live your kinks? What is the payment for? Is the kink of the escort being a whore?

Alert: I guess payment is part of the kink. There's the flow of considerable amounts of XGold involved, usually to pay for gifts, sometimes for gallery slots, or as direct transfer to the escort's XGold account. It is play money, but it has at least sentimental value, and that's important. As a client, you usually don't have arbitrary spending power in XGold, so you try to invest wisely and expect a good return from the escort.

PETHUNTER

Alert

PH: I leave that without any comment because I think everyone may think over it on his or her own. Before I draw a summery I have one more question. When I read the profiles of the high class escorts I find 10 minutes per gift which is, measured in days to collect XGold, quite expensive. So, for how long do you pay for an escort service? Are 30 minutes, which I often read, really enough? Looking at myself that's only possible with a person I know very well and for whom I am really "hungry" (smiles) for in that moment.

Alert: If it's a start from scratch, then 30 minutes may be a bit short, indeed. But in my experience most escorts are generous when it comes to a little flirty chat beforehand to get to know each other and to negotiate rates and conditions. If I am attracted by her profile and her avatar, and if I sense after five or ten minutes of chatting that we click with each other, then I'm usually in the mood to get to the point quickly, and half an hour of raunchy sex can be just fine. (smiles)

PH: Alert, that have been very interesting insights into you and your motivations to pay for escort service. Though my emotional position is different I clearly understand your points and I think our readers will also appreciate to read about the motivation to pay for escort as well. Before we close now I ask you if there is anything else you want to tell our readers, hints, a saying, anything you think of that is worth to be said?

Alert: The presence of prostitution, the lifestyle of whores or escorts often causes strong reactions in society, as it challenges ethical values. I'd like to close with memorable quotes on that from two women. Carol Leigh, a prostitute who invented the term "sex worker" for her occupation group, once wrote: "Prostitution is not a monolith. The newspapers use the plight of the most vulnerable women to symbolize the entire field, ignoring the diversity of the sex-worker community." And the writer and philosopher Isabel Paterson looked at it with sarcasm: "The only way to prevent prostitution altogether would be to imprison one half of the human race."

PH: I think these are wise words and our readers may overthink them. In fact I think every human and therewith every woman is free to do with her body what she wants. Thank you for being here, Alert, for your time and most of all for you open mind to tell us about the motivation to pay for escorts services.

Alert: Thank you for giving me the opportunity to share my views! (smiles)

What happened before

after Deianera freed Philomena from Hades' captivity, they both returned to Lemnos. Deianera was about to confess her love to her beloved princess, when suddenly, out of nowhere, Hades, who was believed dead, appeared and grabbed Philomena.

a graphic novel
by PETHUNTER

Full of anger and rage, Deianera attacks Hades, brought back to life by his wicked superpower, to free Philomena. She was afraid that Hades would kill her beloved princess right now here, knowing that she would never become the mother of his son, to give him the power to kill Zeus and rule the Olympus.

Deianera had already defeated him once in a fair fight. That was not going to happen again. Despite Zeus' prohibition, he would use his wicked super power to kill Deianera.

Hades knew about the strength of Deianera, the weapon master of the Amazons. He quickly knocks down Philo and faces Deianera for the fight.

PHILOMENA

PRINCESS OF THE AMAZONS

The noise of battle wakes Philomena from her unconsciousness and she understands that she and Deianera cannot win this fight.

She sees Deianera gets hit by Hades' fire beam and falls to the ground. Realizing that there is only one way left to defeat Hades. She must ask the Amazon mother goddess for help; Artemis!

Philomena jumps up and runs to the bronze statue of the goddess Artemis. Being a princess of the Amazons, she has the right to make a wish.

One wish only!

She must save Deianera!

Seconds later, a white glowing figure stepped directly out of the bronze statue. Artemis, the patron goddess of the Amazons, had heard Princess Philomena and spoke to her in a gentle voice:

What is your wish, daughter?

ARTEMIS hear me!
The princess of the Amazons asks for her rightful wish!

I beg you, mother of all Amazons: Save Deinara's life and banish Hades back to the kingdom of darkness. He has violated the laws of Zeus!

These are TWO wishes, daughter ! For the second wish you have to pay a price.

I will pay it, whatever it is! But save Deianera and protect Olympus and the world from Hades!

So it will be done, daughter!

Artemis stands protectively in front of Deianera and saves her at the very last minute from the deadly attack.

"With the power granted to me by Zeus I punish you for your treachery Hades! Abandon your plan and be banned to hell for 1000 years!"

With these words a blue-white lightning bolt shoots out of her hand towards Hades. The bolt hits Hades, makes him fall motionless to the ground and disappears in the lightning.

After Hades disappears, the goddess turns round, walks towards the throne of darkness and mounts it.

She looks benevolently at the two Amazons standing before her and speaks to them with a gentle voice.

"Your rightful wish has been granted Princess Philomena and your beloved Deianera has been saved. Now hear the price you must pay for the second wish:

You and Deianera will travel to Egypt and retrieve a sacred object that was stolen from me by the magician Imhotep. I cannot go there myself since other gods rule there. In order to assist you, I will grant you powers that will help you fulfill your task.

Come to me, daughters!"

With these words Artemis rises and leads the two Amazons to the well of the goddess

She speaks the magical words to give Philomena and Deianera the promised powers:

"I grant you the strength of the tiger and the speed of the gazelle, the eyes of the eagle and the courage of the wolf.

Use them only to accomplish your task, or else you will lose them ! "

With these magical words, she slowly disappears in a white mist, leaving the two women alone.

They hold each other tightly in their arms, Philomena looks deep into Deianera's eyes and speaks:

"When we were united with Artemis, I could see and feel your great love to me"

Deia blushes at these words and does not know what to answer. Philo smiles at her, kisses her and says: "I love you too, since the first time we fought together".

With these words all boundaries collapse for both of them and the long suppressed lust breaks its way.

Burning with lust and desire they ignite the fire of their desire for each other's bodies.

Tenderly at first, then more and more demanding and ecstatic they kiss, caress and fondle.

Their movements become more and more ecstatic and both stagger from one climax to the next.

Deia's most secret dream come true at that moment and she feels great gratitude to the goddess Artemis.

She would never have dared to confess her love to Philomena.

Exhausted and happy, they both fall back on the bed and lie in each other's arms.

Everything feels so much better for both of them, now that they have confessed their love.

But full of worries, Philomena thinks about the price they will both have to pay.

Thoughtfully, they look into each other's eyes and think about the task ahead of them.

A dangerous journey to distant Egypt, fight against a powerful magician and bring back an object stolen from their goddess.

Will they be able to make it?

We will accomplish this ! With the help of Artemis !

5 Years BDSMetal Gang

6 Days, 25 DJ with 26 hours of Metal and Rock

The anniversary of the BDSMetal Gang is over. After 6 days of celebration the Gang can look back to a long party with lots of fun with about 40 visitors and more on each event evening. The Gang's heart is not to ask for numbers but to create places with an atmosphere to feel good, enjoy oneself, to relay and party while having great rock and metal. Music has had a climax during the 6 days of the anniversary celebration. (You can read more about the BDSMetal Gang in our 2021 February issue in the Veteran report "Icebox, BDSMetal Gang")

The anniversary was not an internal thing of the Gang. As always the room was opened to the public and the BDSMetal Gang was glad to see many guests, including PETHUNTER staff members, celebrating with them. Even more, not only the Gang's own DJ rocked the room, but a great number of guest DJ too. It's not to diminish any of the other DJ but the appearance of "The Old Man" OliU as guest DJ should be mentioned because OliU is a rocker in his heart himself and with over 5 years around a 3DX veteran himself.

And here are the 25 guest and Gang DJ who rocked the anniversary of one of the oldest music clubs in 3DX:

TeresaScharfberg, Sylviex, Feuermond, Chammy, Maron, Mulan, Atlante, RobPathfinder, ChristineXS, Pernilla, Cecilia, Philine, Helandrine, Dota, Animay, Shirya, Alatheia, Cinnamon, BikiniKim, Darkangel, Eyleen, Icebox, CoraGaga, OliU, RikoRenegade (Editorial note: CoraGaga meanwhile became prospect of the BDSMetal Gang)

Measured in 3DX terms 5 Years is old, but the Gang is more alive than ever. With currently 8 prospect more people than ever want to join this music club which can be rated to be part of the 3DX furniture, meant in an absolute positive way.

PETHUNTER

5 Years BDSMetal Gang

6 Days, 25 DJ with 26 hours of Metal and Rock

How young the Gang is though being already 5 years old, we could see when even the Gang's very experienced Boss Icebox got blast out of his clothes by the rockin' thunder of the anniversary event and made him dance in rock on in shorts only.

With WhiteBreeze, being more known for crowded rooms with EMD music, sending the the WhiteBreeze Devil Dancers onto the stages of the BDSMetal Gang on Day 6 of the anniversary, both groups showed there is not only peaceful co-existing but cooperation too when sometimes also different interests and goals come to match.

PETHUNTER congratulates the BDSMetal Gang to its 5 Years anniversary, a great celebration week, and looks to forward to write about the Gang further on during its next 5 and more years to come.
